Topic:

Background	Personnel & Team	Resources Which resources are already available or could	Presentation Tell a STORY.
What challenge do you want to tackle?	Who could collaborate and what resources would be required (labor/time)?	be made available if necessary? Finance:	S ense – provide inspiration and build a connection: For what purpose? How? What?
Why is this challenge relevant to you and your organization?	Who would need to be on the core team?	Time:
	Who will assist the process from a methodological point of view?	Prior knowledge, reports, data:	T ransfer – convey information and emotions: How will we know that the problem no longer exists?
Target groups Who would benefit from an improvement in the current situation?	Map Out Players Which managers need to be involved?	How much time is needed for active collaboration?	O riginality – build up a sense of
Who would not benefit?	Who else is relevant?	Who is responsible for the venture?	expectation and set a focus: What surprising facts are there on the subject?
		Who is leading the project?
Approximate time frame			R eduction – use short formula BCR (Background – Complications – Resolution) for easier recall: What narrative sequence is compelling?
By when would you like to have implemented a solution to the challenge? Don't go into too much detail. Show that there will be a structured process and convey an understanding of how decisions can be made within this.		Title Internal designation:
		Date:	Y es factor – translate into (mental) images: What is a memorable metaphor for
		Contact:	the venture?

Download link: www.citylab-berlin.org/handbuch Licensed under Creative Commons BY-NC-SA 4.0